The need to research persistent breathlessness

16 May, 2022 | 18:00–19:00 CEST

Register now for the next ERS Vision Live panel discussion, hosted exclusively on the ERS Respiratory Channel.

Taking place on 16 May, this instalment will see an expert panel discuss the need to research persistent breathlessness.

The expert panellists will be discussing key areas, including:

- the epidemiology of persistent breathlessness,
- mechanisms of persistent breathlessness perception,
- and implementation of evidence-base for non-pharmacological interventions for persistent breathlessness.

The event is completely free to access but registration is required.
